LOVE WHAT WE DO

Love Camden is a local and internationally focused website that promotes all culture and leisure activities happening in the London Borough of Camden. The majority of content is produced by our users and is overseen by the Arts and Tourism team at Camden Council who help to provide up to date information on art, music and culture in the Borough. Through various avenues such as event listings, articles, neighbourhood and organisation pages, Love Camden is your go to site for everything creative in Camden.

Our priority is to push the content that highlights Camden as one of the most diverse boroughs in London.

Camden Kala is complementing the UK/India Year of Culture.

Camden Kala will explore dance, music, film, academic text and the visual arts. Family workshops, walking tours, artists film screenings, yoga and food will all be featured. Local partners include The Place, Roundhouse, The Hospital Club, Central Saint Martins, Akademi, Quiet Down There and others. International partners include Tarq Gallery and Chatterjee and Lal (Mumbai).

Camden Flux

2017 sees the 50th anniversary of the Sexual Offences Act (1967) which introduced the partial decriminalisation of same sex relationships in England and Wales via an act of Parliament.

Throughout the year Camden will host a wide range of events, screenings, talks and online articles to explore, celebrate and reflect upon the history of LGBTQ+ culture, activism, societal shifts and legal and cultural breakthroughs.
